Things to do

If you don't fancy the organised ride out, there are plenty of things to do in the area - here are a few suggestions:

Towns & Villages

Castleton, Matlock and Bakewell are all close by with many things to do including Blue John and other mines to visit, and of course you can try an authentic Bakewell Pudding (no Mr Kipling here!)

Houses

- Chatsworth House
Besides the house, the gardens and parkland at Chatsworth are justly famous, and the fountain is spectacular
- Haddon Hall
Haddon Hall is a beautifully preserved medieval manor house
- Other houses nearby include Hardwick Hall and Calke Abbey

Industrial History

The home of the industrial revolution is in the rural Peak District

- Cromford Mill
Sir Richard Arkwright's Cromford Mill is now a World Heritage Site. This amuses the locals no end
- Belper Mill
Jedediah Strutt was not to be outdone and his Belper Mill is still an impressive building. It was one of the first buildings with a structural iron frame, the technique that led to the skyscraper

Tourist Attractions

- Carsington Water
Carsington Water reservoir has watersports and sailing, as well as bird hides and trails for walking
- Heights of Abraham Cable Cars
Matlock Bath has cable cars that go from the river valley up to the top of the cliffs, the Heights of Abraham. The views are spectacular
- Ecclesbourne Valley Railway
Ecclesbourne Valley Railway is run by a group of enthusiasts and volunteers who are trying to keep the Duffield-Wirksworth railway line open for everyone to enjoy
