

2003 CB SEVEN-FIFTY PRESS INFORMATION

The straight-shooting CB puts the fun into the fundamentals of motorcycle riding enjoyment. Its traditional air-cooled 750cc inline 4-cylinder engine delivers a full-bodied rush of roaring excitement at each twist of its throttle, while its strongly constructed steel tube frame and modern, responsive suspension and brake components provide a neutral set of riding manners that feel right at home in any age. With its wide, comfortable seat and handlebars in easy reach, this go-anywhere do-anything road bike feels as comfortable as an old pair of jeans from the instant you throw your leg over and start her up. Commuting, running errands or getting out for a bit of high-spirited corner carving, the CB Seven-Fifty brings the simple pleasures of riding into clearer focus with an all-round orientation that never fails to satisfy.
