

2003 XR50R PRESS INFORMATION

Some kids just can't wait to ride. For the little ones who want to jump into all the off-road riding fun that their parents and older sibling enjoy there's a Honda built just for them. The small but rugged new XR50R provides the perfect introduction to the joys of off-road riding with a friendly and smoothly responsive 4-stroke engine packed into a kid-sized chassis that features ultra-compact proportions and easy handling to quickly inspire confidence in young children. And with its high-flying motocrosser styling and graphics, the baby XR helps little kids feel like they're riding with the big boys.
